Names for our chatbot

There are four categories of names:
- human (Alexa, Siri, Watson, etc.)
- robot (Zen, Spirit, Alpha, Terra, Echo, etc.)
- descriptive (e.g. "the Librarian", "the Library Bot")
- clever (a pun, abbreviation, or symbolic name)

In general, adding a suffix such as "the bot" or "the robot" is not seen as a very good thing. I it seen as quite a childish approach. Nevertheless, I think we should ask the client whether they want a suffix or not. Personally, if we are doing a suffix, I would go for either "the Library Bot" or "the Librarian".
